Requirements 1 - 6 satisfied as of (date): Dec. '16 Total points toward major = 37 by May '17

Advisor's Signature (optional): _____ Date: _____

Barnard psychology courses: No more than 9 points from Barnard psychology courses may be applied as credit toward the major. The table of approved Barnard psychology courses indicates which courses have been approved for specific requirements of the psychology major. Courses not on the approved list may only be applied toward a specific requirement with prior written approval from a program adviser. Courses not on the approved list for a specific requirement may be applied as elective credit toward the 30 points for the major.

Transfer credit: Psychology courses taken at other institutions require D.U.S. approval and a grade of B- or better in order to count toward the major. No more than nine transfer credits (including any Barnard points) may be applied toward the major. See the "apply for exceptions" link on the Infopack web page for instructions and application form.
